. How places are allocated

For a place to be available for an in-year admission then the number for the relevant year group will have to have fallen below the admissions number for the relevant year (see paragraph 2 above). When this occurs, the place will be allocated strictly in accordance with the process and definitions of the oversubscription criteria as set out in the 2023+.

Places that become available will be allocated to those applicants who meet the relevant criteria for the year group and who are currently in the application process or

5. Applicants will not be placed on the waiting list for the relevant year group for their initial application unless they advise the School in writing that they wish to be placed on the list, and will not be retained on the waiting list in the subsequent academic year unless they expressly request to be placed on that list in writing to the School.
6. When an application is unsuccessful there is an automatic right of appeal to an Independent Appeal Panel. The decision of the Independent Appeal Panel is binding.
7. The School reserves the right not to accept a further application in the same academic year unless it considers that there has been a significant and material change in circumstance of the parent, the child or the School.
